

Sunwah Foundation Global Young Leaders Network

Sunwah Group, an international conglomerate based in Hong Kong, is committed to returning some of the rewards of its own success to the communities it serves. Since the 1970s, the Choi family has started to provide financial support for the establishment of kindergartens, primary schools and colleges in Zhongshan, the family's hometown, Hong Kong and Macau.

The Sunwah Foundation was soon set up and its scope of services has been extended from education to science and technology and in recent years to arts and culture as well. Projects under the Sunwah Foundation now cover many cities in Mainland China and other countries.

The latest international project of the Foundation is to start building and developing Jonathan KS Choi cultural centres in the United Kingdom, Vietnam, Cambodia initially and will be extended to other countries. These cultural centres will be linked to promote understanding, appreciation and respect for the unique culture of each country to generate goodwill, paving the way to a more harmonious world. A Sunwah Foundation Global Young Leaders Network (GYLN) will also be launched to provide a ready international platform for young leaders from various countries to grow and develop their international outlook, leadership skills and commitment to public and social services. The Network will have its headquarters in Hong Kong with Hong Kong Chapter, China Chapter, Macau Chapter, UK Chapter, Canada Chapter, Japan Chapter, Vietnam Chapter and Cambodia Chapter for a start and will be expanded to other countries.

Sunwah GYLN Members can be undergraduates or recent graduates of universities. A Committee of five young leaders will comprise of one Chairman, two Vice Chairmen and two Committee Members. These five people Committees in various countries will be linked up while a website will be available for all members. They can start to share ideas and experience on developing leadership skills and international exchanges and submit proposals on public and social services projects to be funded by Sunwah Foundation.

Sunwah GYLN Members will be invited to participate in Sunwah Foundation's events, activities and projects.
